

Hunter Mill Road Corridor Historical Tour

Saturday, October 19th

Join the Greater Oakton Community Association for this narrated bus tour, led by acclaimed local historian Jim Lewis. For those who have joined us for “Oakton-centric” tour, this can be considered “Part 2”, although participation in the earlier tour is not required to enjoy this one. The tour’s material will span from the formation of Fairfax County in 1742 thru the early 1900s, and focus on sites primarily on or just off of Hunter Mill Rd. Hear where the old mills/roads were located and about some of the famed military figures (particularly the Civil War era) and colorful residents who graced the area. Numerous “period photos” will support the narrative. Walking requirements are minimal, although one segment does involve going down a slight grassy decline.

Logistics: This 4 hour tour will take place rain or shine.

Cost: $40 per seat (22 available seats) - First come, first served basis

Departure Location: Oakton Community Park, 2841 Hunter Mill Rd., Oakton, VA – next to the old schoolhouse and roundabout

Assembly Time: 9 AM – There will be remarks, then board the bus by 9:30AM

Projected End Time: 1 PM
