

Our Oakton Hometown: A Word Search Puzzle

(Answers can be found at greateroakton.com)

1. Name of the County district in which Oakton is situated
2. Acronym for group who was first to organize to prevent commercialization along Hunter Mill Road
3. Last name of Oakton School's principal in the 1900s and also a WWI pilot for the Army Air Corps killed during a training flight; Dallas's airfield is named after him because he was one of the first American military pilots to lose his life
4. Name of Oakton until it was changed in 1883
5. Shares community information, promotes civic engagement, and works to preserve Oakton's historic and environmental assets
6. _____ of Oakton Library runs regular book sales to support the library's programs
7. _____ Run is a major watershed running through Oakton
8. _____ Outfitters occupied the Oakton Schoolhouse for more than three centuries
9. A park is named after this Oakton resident who was a pioneer conservationist, distinguished field ornithologist and renowned author
10. Group currently focused on ensuring development of AT&T property is appropriate for Oakton's character and scale
11. Type of tree for which Oakton was named; the original tree was at the corner of Hunter Mill and Chain Bridge Road until destroyed by Hurricane Isabel in 2005
12. Church of the _____ is located on a Civil War fort site
13. Local road that served as a key passageway for Union and Confederate soldiers during the Civil War
14. Type of transportation responsible for changing Oakton's rural character in the early 1900s
15. Name of a park that is a favorite among young children on street with same name
16. In 1935, the women of the Vale community petitioned to convert the abandoned Vale Schoolhouse into a community center, then raised enough money to purchase the property; it is now a site for many activities organized by this women's social organization